Narrogin Hawks debut new kit for first match of the season

Junior and Senior players of the Narrogin Hawks Football Club were presented with their brand new playing jumpers and warm up kit on Friday, ready for their first match of the 2018 season.

The gear was provided by the Club's major sponsor, Arc Infrastructure, who have supported the Club for twelve consecutive years.

Narrogin local and Arc Infrastructure Regional Lead Fred Steer presented the jumpers and said he was glad to be able to continue to support the Club.

"With teams living and working in Narrogin, Katanning and Albany, Arc Infrastructure is proud to be a part of the Narrogin and wider Great Southern community and we're delighted to continue our long standing partnership with the Hawks," Mr Steer said.

"We look forward to their success in the upcoming season and wish the teams all the best."

Narrogin Hawks Football Club President Karen Fazey said Arc Infrastructure's ongoing support had greatly benefitted the club over the 12 year partnership.

"Our players feel proud to wear the new playing jumpers and training jackets. We present as a professional and unified club and our members gain a sense of belonging to a community," Ms Fazey said.

"Arc Infrastructure has been more than willing to assist our club in ensuring that the game of Aussie Rules continues to be played in the region and to provide a club that all members can feel comfortable and safe in, so we thank them for that."

The annual Arc Infrastructure Cup match between rivals Narrogin Hawks and Wagin Bulldogs will be held in Narrogin on Saturday May 5, followed by dinner and entertainment.
